Definitions

- Section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999 - “Harm”, to a child, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child’s physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.
  1. It is immaterial how the harm is caused.
  2. Harm can be caused by—
    - a) physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect; or
    - b) sexual abuse or exploitation.
  3. Harm can be caused by—
    - a) a single act, omission or circumstance
    - b) a series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.

- Section 10 of the Child Protection Act 1999 - A “child in need of protection” is a child who—
  - a) has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm
  - b) does not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

- Section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 - “Sexual abuse”, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances –
  - (a) the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person
  - (b) the relevant person has less power than the other person
  - (c) there is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.

Health and Safety

The College has written processes in place to enable it to comply with the requirements of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (Qld) and the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (Qld). See Redwood College Work Health and Safety Policy and Redwood College Risk Management Strategy.

Responding to Reports of Harm

When the College receives any information alleging 'harm'<sup>1</sup> to a student (other than harm arising from physical or sexual abuse) it will deal with the situation compassionately and fairly so as to minimise any likely harm to the extent it reasonably can. This is set out in the College’s Child Risk Management Strategy. Information relating to physical or sexual abuse is handled under obligations to report set out in this policy<sup>2</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Qld) s.16(7): the definition of 'harm' for this regulation is the same as in section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999 (Qld)

Conduct of Staff and Students

All staff, contractors and volunteers must ensure that their behaviour towards and relationships with students reflect proper standards of care for students. Staff, contractors and volunteers must not cause harm to students<sup>3</sup>.

Reporting Inappropriate Behaviour

If a student considers the behaviour of a staff member to be inappropriate, the student should report the behaviour to: -

- Mrs Kathy Fisher
CEO Redwood College<sup>4</sup> or
- Mrs Kerry Petrus
Head of Distance Education and Principal (ACTING) – Redwood College

Dealing with Report of Inappropriate Behaviour

A staff member who receives a report of inappropriate behaviour must report it to the principal. Where the principal is the subject of the report of inappropriate behaviour, the staff member must inform the CEO as a member of the College's governing body<sup>6</sup>. Reports will be dealt with under the College's Complaints Handling Policy

Reporting Sexual Abuse<sup>7</sup>

Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects, in the course of their employment at the College, that any of the following has been sexually abused by another person:

- a) a student under 18 years attending the College;
- b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the College;
- c) a person with a disability who: -
  - i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the College; and
  - ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the College.

then the staff member must give a written report about the abuse or suspected abuse to the Principal or to the CEO as a member of the College's governing body immediately.

The College's Principal or the CEO must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who becomes aware or reasonably suspects sexual abuse is the College's Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the abuse, or suspected abuse to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to the CEO as member of the College's governing body.

A report under this section must include the following particulars: -

- a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- b) the student's name and sex;
- c) details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused by another person;
- d) details of the abuse or suspected abuse;
- e) any of the following information of which the first person is aware: -
  - i. the student's age;
  - ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to have abused, the student;
  - iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse<sup>8</sup>.

Reporting Likely Sexual Abuse<sup>9</sup>

Section 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the College, that any of the following is likely to be sexually abused by another person: -

- a) a student under 18 years attending the College;
- b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the College;
- c) a person with a disability who: -
  - i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the College; and
  - ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the College.

then the staff member must give a written report about the suspicion to the principal or to the CEO as a member of the College's governing body immediately.

The College's Principal or the CEO must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who reasonably suspects likely sexual abuse is the College's Principal, the principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to the CEO who is responsible for passing this information to the Chair of the Redwood College Sub Committee.

A report under this section must include the following particulars: -

- a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- b) the student's name and sex;
- c) details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting that the student is likely to be sexually abused by another person;
- d) any of the following information of which the first person is aware: -
  - i. the student's age;

- ii. the identity of the person who is suspected to be likely to sexually abuse the student;
- iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about suspected likelihood of abuse<sup>10</sup>.

Reporting Physical and Sexual Abuse <sup>11</sup>

Under Section 13E (3) of the Child Protection Act 1999, if a doctor, a registered nurse, a teacher or an early education and care professional forms a 'reportable suspicion' about a child "in the course of their engagement in their profession", they must make a written report.

A reportable suspicion about a child is a reasonable suspicion that the child: -

- a) has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse
- b) may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

The doctor, nurse, teacher or early education and care professional must give a written report to the Chief Executive of the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services (or other department administering the Child Protection Act 1999). The doctor, nurse, teacher or early education and care professional should give a copy of the report to the principal.

A report under this section must include the following particulars: -

- a) state the basis on which the person has formed the reportable suspicion
- b) include the information prescribed by regulation, to the extent of the person's knowledge<sup>12</sup>

Awareness

The College will inform staff, students and parents of its processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students in communications to them and it will publish these processes on its website<sup>13</sup>.

Training

The College will train its staff in processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students on their induction and will refresh training annually<sup>14</sup>.

Implementing the Processes

The College will ensure it is implementing processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students by auditing compliance with the processes annually<sup>15</sup>.
